A GRAND VIRGINIA DISCOVERY. OME FOUR MONTHS SINCE, our excellent townsman NAPHTALI EZEKIEL, informed us that he had prepared a hair restorer with which he was experimenting upon his own head, whose top was entirely bald. We saw him two days since, and on the place so bald four months since, a fine sonal estate: crop of hair has sprung up with a vigorous growth. So convinced is Mr. EZEKIEL of the efficacy of his discovery that he has named it "THE INFALLIBLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER." Mr. E. is about going into an extensive manufacture of an article which is destined to prove of anxious interest to our bald pated friends .- From Richmond Enquirer, December 12th, 1859.

This famous article can now be had of the principal Druggists. Those persons who desire a fine head of hair, have only to use the restorer according to printed directions on the bottle. Those who have any doubts of its efficacy, can have them removed in a short time, by using the INFALLI-BLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER, proving that it is all that it is claimed to be.

by using EZEKIEL'S VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER. NAPHTALI EZEKIEL. 83_Orders from our friends will receive prompt attention. This day sworn to before me, by Naphtali Ezekiel. Joseph Mayo, Mayor of Richmond. WM. H. LIPPITT, sole Agent for Wilmington, N. C. Jan. 14th. 1860-111-1t-21-12m.

> FEVER AND AGUE, from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous miasm of vegetable decay. This exhalation is evolved by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the watery vapor from it While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and excreting organs of the body. The liver becomes tor-pid and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finally, the instinct of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the noxious infusion, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the CHILL. But in this effort it fails .-Then the Fever tollows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort | two miles from the Ocean. to expel the irritating poison through that other great excretory—the skin. is not removed. We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote, AYER'S AGUE CURE, stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As it should, so it does cure this afflicting disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather does what is of more service to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels which abounds in all kinds of fish, oysters, &c., &c. This it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but protects from the great variety of affections which are induced by this malignant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headment. This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these organs by degrees become habited to uo this their office of their own accord .-Hence arises what we term acclimatation. Time may accomplish the same end, but often life is not long enough, or is sacrificed in the attempt, while this " AGUE CURE" does it to convey passengers from Morehead City, the terminus of at once, and with safety. date of the 10th inst., says : Last Saturday the four murderers of Senor Agueros were garroted on the very spot where they had just two victim. A vast crowd such as has never before been seen at one time in this city, assembled to witness the execution. The prisoners walked from the prison to the scaffold, which was fully a quarter of a mile, and appeared resigned to their fate. The executioner garroted each one in turn, taking the dead man from the machine in his arms, and sitting him down on a stool prepared for the purpose. The ceremony commenced at 7 A. M., and lasted one hour exactly. There are four or five others whose cases are almost as bad as these villians, that will soon follow. The police in Matanzas arrested a celebrated highwayman named Sallez on board the American brig L. M. Merritt. It seems he had escaped from Cuba about a year ago, and had shipped as a common sailor on the our next Court of Equity, to be held for Duplin, on the brig, in order to desert in Matanzas and return to his fourth Monday of September next, and then and there plead, old ways. The police received their information from New York, and, accompanied by the American Consul. went on board and secured him. In his chest they found a list of the plantations he intended to fire, and peaceable citizens doomed to his revenge. Sallez was entrusted to the mounted police, to be brought to Havana by land, and on the road attempted to escape, when he was shot dead. This is one of the methods adopted by the Government to avoid long trials for hard vin, has run away and lies out, hid and lurking in swamps cases. They are handed over to the soldiers for removal from one place to another, left with a certain liberty, and shot down by the soldiers at the slightest attempt at escape.

IS THE WORLD UNGRATEFUL!

THE FRIENDS OF M. LAMARTINE THINK IT IS? We are utterly disgusted with the self-laudation which some of our second class great men are in the habit of JAS. F. SIMPSON, J. P. [L. S.] practicing; and we mean to expose it, even though the task is a distasteful one. The vice is peculiarly, though not exclusively, French; and is found among the second

Thomas Holloway, one of the latter, whose name is idolized in all parts of the world, and to whom it is not too much to say that millions of all creeds and complexions are indebted for the preservation of their lives .-Thomas Holloway, we say, is never heard appealing either to the gratitude or generosity of those who have derived the greatest of all earthly blessings from his skill; he contents himself with the assurance that his work has been

We have been led into these reflections by an appeal which is now put forward on behalf of a second class French poet. Monsieur Alphonse Lamartine, it seems, though munificently paid for the productions of his pen, neglected to lay up any sufficient store for the support of on the 6th Monday after the 4th Monday of September next, his declining days; and now his voice is raised against and plead, answer or demur to Plaintiff's bill or the same "the ingratitude of the human race." The argument which he produces to strengthen his claim, is one which should rather make him blush for his extravagance; he says that millions of his productions have been sold, and that therefore the world is in his debt! But why? Was he not paid the price he asked for every copy? Or does he think that it sounds like common prose honesty to ask

He will answer, loubtless, that his poems gave a pleasure the value of which their price could not approximate. Let us admit this rule, and apply it to another case to test its merits. Health, we all know, is the chief of earthly blessings; a boon which must be purchased, let the cost be what it may; a blessing, to be blessed with which the C. Pemberton, James T. Pemberton, Susan Ann Pemberton, Sarah Josephine Pemberton, and Mary Frances then, that Holloway, instead of fixing such a price on his Cannon, defendants in this cause, reside beyond the limits of this State.
